Style: Blackened Death Metal Release Date: 24.03.2017

Death Metal commando HYPNOS was founded in the autumn of 1999 from the remnants of the famous Czech band KRABATHOR (est. 1984). The band became the country's leading Death Metal band after four albums and several EPs. HYPNOS have played more than 300 shows all over Europe, among them the WFF and the Brutal Assault also touring alongside BEHEMOTH, MORBID ANGEL, ENSLAVED, DYING FETUS and THE CROWN. "The Whitecrow" was recorded by Børge FINSTAD (MAYHEM, ILSAHN, ARCTURUS) again. Christopher (Krabathor), Paul Speckmann (Master), V. Santura (Dark Fortress, Triptykon), Martin Missy (Protector) contributed to the album as guests. Musicologists & press are enthusiastic. The album will be available as a Digi-CD+DVD (incl. 3 video clips and a 70 minutes live show) limited to 1.000 copies as well as a standard jewel case CD with a great 28-page booklet.

"HYPNOS is the natural evolution of KRABATHOR, which is for me one of the oldest, most impressive and hard working group from the East of Europe. I am the proud owner of all, what HYPNOS released since 2000. Every album is different and everyone is special! This is a gift! HYPNOS slowed down a bit on the new release...but is so much more evil and dark!" (Peter) Vader

"HYPNOS rejuvenated their sound – the result sounds darker, more morbid and intense than ever before, still not losing any class, on the contrary. "The Whitecrow" is a strong record with a long shelf life."
(Frank Albrecht) Deaf Forever

"...by far the most multi-faceted work of HYPNOS and indeed sometimes hypnotic." 13/15 Punkten
(Björn Thorsten Jaschinski) Legacy

"The Czech old school commando has the right mixture of brutality, melody and blunt force down. Welcome back, HYPNOS!"
(Lennart Riepenhusen) Metal News

"5 years after 'Heretic Commando Rise of the New Antikrist', Czech deathsters Hypnos return to form: 'The Whitecrow' is probably their darkest and most varied release to date!"

"Fk, this is damn ass-kicking stuff!" (Big Boss) Root
